The base fee may change based upon the complexity of the work to be performed, our professional time to complete the work, and the value we generate for you. Additionally, the final fee is dependent on the availability, quality, and completeness of your records. If your situation includes any additional states besides California or forms not included above such as Business Owners (Schedule C), Capital Gain/Loss Transactions (Schedule D) and Rental Real Estate (Schedule E), please discuss your specific situation with us to determine your fee.
